

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT DR JOHNSON'S HOUSE, 2018

VO'LUNTARY. adj. [volontaire, Fr. voluntarius, Latin.]

1. Acting without compulsion; acting by choice.
2. Willing; acting with willingness.

(Johnson, A Dictionary of the English Language, 1755)

Dr Johnson's House is a charming Georgian townhouse, nestled amongst a maze of courts and alleys in the historic City of London. Samuel Johnson, writer and wit, lived here in the mid-18th century, and compiled his great Dictionary of the English Language in the Garret. Today, the House is open to the public from Monday to Saturday, with collections relating to Johnson, restored interiors, and a research library.

Volunteering at the House:

Dr Johnson's House has a dedicated team of volunteers who provide invaluable support to our two members of curatorial staff, aiding the smooth running of the house. Volunteering can be a great way to meet new people and gain behind-the-scenes experience, and we recruit people of all ages and backgrounds to join our friendly volunteer team.

Owing to the small size of the organisation, all our volunteers must be prepared to undertake a wider variety of tasks, ranging from occasional Front of House duties to day-to-day housekeeping, as required. We regret that no travel expenses can be offered and no employment opportunities are available at the end of the period, although you will gain a great understanding of the many aspects of running an historic house museum. References can be offered in support of job applications elsewhere.

Not all placements require qualifications or previous experience, but an enthusiastic approach, independent working, and an interest in Dr Johnson and history is vital. Please refer to the person specification for each post.
